National visa for IT specialists

1. General information

If you do have practical experience in the field of information and communication technology but no formal qualifications, you can apply for national visa for an IT-specialist. Required is significant professional experience (at least 3 years professional experience in the last 7 years) and job offer with gross annual salary of at least € 54,360 (as of 2024).

As a rule, proof of German language skills at B1 level are required but exceptions can be made in duly substantiated cases, e.g. if the working language in the company is purely English.

The long term residence permit is issued exclusively by the relevant alien authority in Germany. At the German Embassy you apply for the national visa which is required in advance to enter German territory to work.

General information about national visa for an IT-Specialist can be found on the portal for qualified professionals www.make-it-in-germany.com

Please note that your visa application must be made in person and will be accepted only if all required documents are submitted according to our regulations.

Appointments can be booked online free of charge: www.tallinn.diplo.de/Terminvergabe

Your original documents (certificates, diplomas, etc.) and passport will be checked and returned to you.

The visa must be approved by the Federal Employment Agency and, where applicable, the competent foreigners authority in Germany. The visa will only be issued when this approval has been received.

Flight reservations are not required to apply for a visa. Please only book the tickets when you have received your visa.

The Embassy reserves the right to request further documents. Missing documentation delays the procedure and can result in your application being rejected.

Please do not contact the Embassy to check the status of your application during the normal processing period. The inquiries cannot be answered.

2. Fees

The fee for processing the visa application is € 75,00. This amount has to be paid in cash or per credit card. This is a processing fee. Thus, a refund in case of withdrawal of the application or up-on denial is not possible.

3. Process

For the case a positive decision is taken on your visa application the visa can only be handed over to you if an evidence for an existing travel medical insurance is provided. This insurance has to cover the time period from your entry to Germany until the beginning of your employment.

4. Required documents

Please make sure that you provide a complete application form and all additional documents required. Incomplete applications will not be considered!

Each submitted document in original has to be accompanied by 1 copy. Documents in foreign languages have to be provided with a certified translation into German or English. A translation of the personal data page of the passport is not required.
